FACT SHEET
FRAIL/ ELDERLY

The Landlord has set aside 15 of the apartments at Middlecrest Crossing to residents who are considered frail elderly.

DHCR has identified the “frail elderly” as one of the special needs populations under their targeting initiative. Frail elderly persons are defined as “persons aged 60 and over who require assistance with one or more Activities of Daily Living (ADLs) or two or more Instrumental Activities of Daily Living (IADLs). Also, persons aged 60 and over who have limitations in mental capacity or emotional strength and motivation that affect their capacity to viably live independently; that is, without assistance or intervention.”

ADLs include bathing, dressing, eating, transferring (moving between the bed and a chair or wheelchair),grooming, personal hygiene, toileting (getting to/from and transferring on/off the toilet), and mobility (moves about by oneself or with adaptive equipment).

IADLs include shopping, getting to places out of walking ability, laundry, housekeeping, chores, prepare/cook meals, handle personal business and finances, use the telephone, and self-administration of medications.

I, _____ certify that I do or do not meet the requirements of frail and or elderly
